

Lee Henry Wallace

June 15, 1954 - March 1, 2021

Lee Henry Wallace was born June 17, 1954 and Chicago, Illinois to Lee Wallace and Gladys Wallace-Armstrong.

Lee met Connie Powell while in high school, the two married and together they had one son Corey Lee Wallace. Later Lee had three other children, Jerrell Lee Wallace, Jessica, and Darail.

Lee was a strong person, although he faced many trials and tribulations he remained positive. He has a great sense of humor. Lee loved joking around, telling silly jokes, he also have a strong love for God. When talking about God to others he made sure they knew his name. Lee would say, "Why don't you use God's name, his name is Jehovah." From that some started using Jehovah's name.

Lee was limited in the things he could do, but that never stopped his love for cars, music, drawing, and playing chess.

Lee loved his family very much. He would talk about how much he missed them and couldn't see them because he lived so far away.

Lee was preceded in death by his parents, Lee and Wallace, along with two brothers, Leonard and Frezell, and one sister Marie, and one son Jerrell Lee Wallace.

Lee leaves to cherish his loving memories, two brothers Terry Lee (Judy) and James (Paul); four sisters Doris, Carol (Sylvester), Lucy (Ibn) and Gladys (Albert); two sons Corey and Darail; one daughter Jessica (Terrence); a loving person Jewett Dowdy, and a special person close to his heart, Connie Collinson; and a host and nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews, cousins and friends.
