

Mr. Leroy Jerrell Daniels Jr.

June 21, 1958 - December 25, 2022

Leroy Jerrell Daniels Jr. born on June 21, 1958, to the union of Leroy Sr. and Lula Daniels which whom preceded him in death. His sister Arlene Weight and great great nephew Anthony Bronon also precedes him in death.

Leroy was from in Chicago, Illinois which he attended Dixon Elementary School from kindergarten to 8th grade. He went to Chicago Vocational School (CVS) and graduated in 1976. He then went to CSU and received his bachelor Degree in accounting as well as carpentry school.

After school he worked a couple of years then enlisted in the Army. After getting out the Army he worked in the Defona Department for a year or two. Leroy started at the Post Office and was there for 18 years in Gary, Indiana, which at that time he relocated to Gary.

Leroy lived a life of excitement, if you knew him he had his boots on a lot of the time, LOL, he was very well dressed in his tailor made suits and always had a hat on his head. He got his dressing from his mother Lula Mae.

Leroy was loved by many and always kept up with his family and friends. He was a kind hearted person. He loved his family, he has a daughter (I DINT UNDER STAND GER WRITTING HERE), whom he loved very much, Courtney.

Leroy leaves to cherish his memory, his loving daughter, Courtney (Richard) of Michigan; two nieces Carol Turner (Cardell) of Chicago and Terri Bennett of Las Vegas; two bonus daughters Corie and Lakeshea; four great nieces Daniellle (Rock), Latina (Michael), CANT UNDERSTAND) and Amber; two great nephews Terrance and Mose; 12 great nephews, 14 great great nieces, five great great great nephews and six great great great nieces. We had a host of cousins and friends who will miss him dearly, we will never forget the love of his life, Deidra Valentine whom will be laid to rest with him.
