“ I thought of my Nanny who was named Lillie Mae Nailer today as I was talking to a dear friend about my childhood. My nanny was named Lillie Mae Nailer. I am 65 years old and my mother passed on June 9th at 94 years old. I have not seen Lillie Mae since I was 23, she came to my wedding. I am wondering if this the same Lillie Mae?

My mother's name is Patricia Paxinos James my name is Cathy and my sister is Patti. Lillie Mae took good care of us for years when my mom was at work in downtown Chicago. We lived in a very small apartment on Magnolia Street in Chicago. I know Lillie Mae came originally came from a southern state, maybe Mississippi and has sister whose name I cannot remember right now. Lillie would take me on the train sometimes when she visited her sister on the south side of Chicago. Lillie Mae was a kind lady and I am so sorry we lost touch.
