

Lloyd Johnson Jr.

September 15, 1944 - June 17, 2012

Lloyd Johnson, Jr. was born on September 15, 1944 to the union of Jessie and Lloyd Johnson, Sr. in Marengo County, Alabama.

Lloyd met and married Mamie L. Blanks, his high school sweetheart on October 28, 1965. This union was blessed with one child, Jacqueline.

Lloyd dedicated his life to Jehovah and symbolized his dedication through water baptism in January 1972, becoming one of Jehovah's Witnesses. He served as an Elder in several Congregation's of Jehovah's Witnesses for many years. Brother Johnson was always busy in Jehovah's service. He attended Elder's school, and set a goal of pioneering upon retirement. His "willing spirit" made him a loving elder who listened to the friends with an open heart. His zeal for Jehovah's house enabled him to witness to all he met telling the doctors, nurses and his caregivers about his hope for a paradise earth.

Lloyd was a quiet family man. He cared for his family materially by working at Electro Motive for over 40 years. Spiritually, he was a family head who put Jehovah first and encouraged his family to be regular and active in the ministry.

On Sunday, June 17, 2012 at 12:40 p.m. Lloyd's faithful course ended at Hinsdale Hospital in Hinsdale, Illinois, with his loving wife, Mamie, by his side.

His family looks forward to welcoming him back to a paradise earth, where no resident will say "I am sick". He was preceded in death by his parents; one brother, Jimmie Johnson; one sister, Essie Johnson; and one nephew, Leo Harris.

Lloyd leaves to cherish his memories, his loving and faithful wife of 46 years, Mamie L. Johnson; his daughter, Jacqueline (Darryl) Morris; two grandchildren, Jordan and Jillian Morris; one sister, Bessie Harris; three brothers, James (Shirley) Johnson, Johnny Johnson and Richard Johnson; one special aunt, Lelar Johnson; a dear sister-in-law, Mary Johnson; special nieces and nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Isaiah 41:13

For I, Jehovah your God, am grasping your right hand, the One saying to you, 'Do not be afraid. I myself will help you.'
