

Lois Cade

July 26, 1931 - October 9, 2015

Lois Cade was born on July 26th 1931 in Birmingham, Alabama to Lee and Hattie Sawyer Hicks.

Lois received her education through the Birmingham Public School System and attended Ullman High School.

On February 6th 1955, she would become united in holy matrimony to Arnold Cade. They would remain strong in that union 54 years until his death on January 10th 2010.

Lois dedicated her life to Jehovah and symbolized her dedication through water baptism. She was a loving, humble pioneer to Jehovah allowing her to become a strong and faithful servant.

Lois Cade was a loving wife, mother and friend who always cared about others. She was so thoughtful and very kind hearted. She was a joy to be around with a beautiful smile that would brighten anyone's day with a personality to match. She will truly be missed.

On Friday, October 9th, Lois fell asleep in death. She was preceded in death by her parents; one sister: Margaret; three brothers: Walter, Ervin and James; and her husband: Arnold.

Lois leaves to cherish her memories, her children: Larry, Ronald, Judith, Arnold Jr. and Eric; four grandchildren: Angel, Lisa, Jazmine and Larry Jr.; five great grandchildren; one sister: Evelyn; and a host of other nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.
