

Lonnie B. Buford

December 3, 1945 - July 6, 2013

Lonnie B. Buford was born on December 3, 1945 in Senatobia, Mississippi to the union of Sam and Hattie Buford. He was one of six children that blessed their union.

Lonnie and family relocated to Chicago, Illinois in 1955 where he continued his formal education graduating from Phillips High School.

Lonnie was a quiet soft spoken man, who loved his family. He was especially fond of his grandchildren; they were the apple of his eye.

Always ready for a challenge, Lonnie enjoyed playing cards and dominos. He was known as the "undisputed" Domino King, and was ready to play bones with anybody who thought they could take him.

Lonnie leaves to cherish his loving memories, his son, Marcus (Denise); his siblings, Edward aka Herc and Melvin; his grandchildren, Marcus, Marquee, DeJaine, Kennedy and Christal; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
