

Lorraine Leona Garrett

May 9, 1928 - August 1, 2013

Lorraine Leona Starr Moran Garrett fell asleep in death on August 1, 2013 at 12:20 p.m. She was preceded in death by Lorraine Moran (daughter Little Lorraine), William A. Moran (son), Edward L. Moran Jr. (son), Edward L. Moran Sr. (1st husband), and William Garrett Jr. (2nd husband).

Lorraine L. Starr was born in Chicago, Illinois, the only child of Helen Starr Foster and Harry Jones, who also preceded her in death. She attended DuSable High School. While working at Community Discount Center for 19 years, she managed the Domestic department and was a dedicated Union Representative. After retiring, she became an entrepreneur by opening a candy store (80th & Paxton), selling Stanley, Mary Kay and Avon. Her hobbies were cooking, gardening, skating, shopping, playing cards & dancing. Lorraine's ultimate joy was babysitting her grandchildren, other children in her neighborhood and her congregation. She undertook a serious study of the Bible with Jehovah's Witnesses in 1983. She dedicated her life and symbolized it through water baptism on December 15, 1990. She attended pioneer service school in 1998. Lorraine was a loyal and understanding person who cared deeply for her family, friends and hall members. On April 25, 2013, Lorraine received an Award of Excellence from Churchview Senior Supportive Living Faculty for being a Wise Counselor.

Lorraine L. Starr Moran Garrett leaves to mourn her, brother-in-law: Clarence
