

Lucendia Johnson

December 7, 1924 - March 11, 2012

Lucendia Johnson was born on December 7, 1924 in Deeson, Mississippi to Joe Mitch Johnson and Partina Hubbard.

In 1940, Lucendia Johnson was united in holy matrimony to Nathaniel Ward. To this union two children were born. She loved her family. She was an excellent cook and homemaker.

After a study of God's word, Lucendia dedicated her life to Jehovah. On August 3, 1958 she symbolized that dedication through water baptism becoming one of Jehovah's Witnesses at the International Assembly in New York City. She loved the truth she learned about Jehovah and wanted others to know Jah also. She had the privilege of attending pioneer school and was a regular pioneer for years. When her health prevented her from serving in that capacity, she began serving as a regular auxiliary pioneer. Even while homebound, her heart and mind stayed focused on being out in field service and preaching the good news, and that's just what she did. Whatever contact with people she had, it was her opportunity to preach.

In 1961, Lucendia moved to Chicago, Illinois. She worked at Woodlawn Hospital, a job she worked for many years.

On March 11, 2012, Lucendia fell asleep in death. She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; and one grandson, Nathaniel III.

Lucendia leaves to cherish her memories, two sons, Frank (Geraldine) and Nathaniel (Sheila); one brother, Joe Mitch Johnson; two granddaughters, Euneice and Tamaria; and a host of other relatives and friends. Lucendia will be truly missed by her family and friends. We look forward to seeing her again when Revelation 21:3 and 4 becomes a reality, and sickness and death will be no more.
