

Lucy Mae Brown

October 5, 1935 - January 2, 2013

Lucy M. Brown affectionately known to her children as MaDea and her grandchildren as MamaDea was born on October 5, 1935 to Louis and Sophonia Brown.

MaDea met John Brown Sr. and started a beautiful family together. In 1966 she moved her family to Ford Heights, Illinois.

MaDea dedicated her life to Jehovah and on March 18, 1973 she symbolized her dedication through water baptism, a special day she shared with two of her daughters. MaDea loved the ministry and those in the congregation. Her favorite scripture was Isaiah 41:10,13. She was known to many as a spiritual woman and a great friend.

To her family she will forever be known as the strongest woman they know.

On Wednesday, January 2, 2013, MaDea fell asleep in death after fighting a fine fight against a lingering illness. She was preceded in death by her parents, Louis and Sophonia Brown; one brother, Alex Brown; two sisters, Dorothy Brown and Lilly Brown-Whittler; one son, Ernest Brown; and one daughter, Doris Brown.

She leaves to cherish her memory her children, Velma Garnett, Bennie
