

Lynda Louise Harper

May 29, 1944 - November 27, 2013

Lynda Harper was born on May 29, 1944 in Evansville, Indiana to the union of Rozetta and Frank Bell.

In 1956, her father accepted a job and relocated the family from Evansville to Chicago, Illinois. She attended Walter Scott Elementary School and graduated in 1958. She achieved her goal of obtaining her GED from Olive Harvey College in 1984.

At the age of 16, Lynda united in marriage with Knezil Harper. From this union they became the parents of three children, Sabrina, Knezil and Orlando.

Lynda confessed and accepted Christ as her personal savior at a young age. She continued her spiritual journey with AFC Crusade Ministries where she was baptized a second time.

There were many enjoyments in Lynda's life, her family, football and TV, to name a few. She had a passion for jigsaw puzzles and could complete the most complicated ones.

On November 27, 2013, Lynda made her transition from this earthly life to eternity. She was preceded in death by her husband, Knezil and three children, Sabrina, Knezil and Orlando.

Lynda leaves to cherish her memories, two sisters, Georgia Yeargin and Mary Young; three grandchildren, Litasha Anderson (Louis), Erica and Sherrod; five great grandchildren, Javon, Rashied, Eric, Antoine and Syriah; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
