In 1985, Lynn united in marriage with Willie Lesure and they were happily married for 25 years. She will be sorely missed.

On June 11, 2020, Lynette Yvonne Irby-Lesure lost a hard battle to cancer at the age of 65, with her family by her side.

Lynn leaves to cherish her memories, her mother Huldia Irby; daughter Utoria Yvonne Irby-Coulter; son-in-law Michael Coulter; stepson Anthony Gaines and family; grandchildren Ashly Yvonne Matthews, David Charles Matthews, and DeAndre Charles Matthews; great grandchildren Alayah Yvonne Clark, Jamel Christian Matthews, Angel Renee Matthews, and Kayden Amir Holliman; and a host of family and friends.

She will be missed by everyone she touched with her giving and caring support that she always gave to people without asking for anything in return.

“ My dear family how my heart is with you at this time. Aunt Huldia and cousin LuLu, we here in Texas are here praying comfort and peace over you all at this time. I remember my cousin being quiet and reserve. But as I get older I realize quiet is not, slow or nonchalant. It's the gathering of your surroundings to move through them ease and precise, wise decision. Lynn rest now, knowing you live with precision and wisdom. Bless you cousins that are here to carry on. Love Lisa, Kenny and the girls here in Texas.
