

Mae Helen Williams

May 30, 1928 - February 1, 2012

Mae Helen Williams was born May 30, 1928 in Dermott, Arkansas to the union of Robert and Helen Johnson.

In August 1947, Mae Helen married Abraham E. Williams, their union was blessed with five children. Mae Helen was a devoted wife and mother. Her goal as a parent was to instill in her children a love of God and the value of hard work. The children were assigned tasks that would help them learn responsibility. She was firm but loving.

Mae Helen's love of God and people led her to study the Bible with Jehovah's Witnesses. After a thorough study of the Bible, Mae Helen dedicated her life to Jehovah and symbolized that dedication through water baptism in 1960. She loved teaching others about the promise of Isaiah 33:24, That no resident will say, "I am sick", and that one day there would be a paradise earth where death and mourning would be things of the past and Jehovah's righteous rule would fill the earth., Revelation 21: 3-4. Sister Williams could always be found at the meetings and in field services as her health permitted.

Mae Helen was deeply loved by her family, her congregation and her neighborhood. She was kind, her words were seasoned with salt and she was non judgmental. She believed in encouraging others and as a result many thought of her as a second mother.

On February 1, 2012, Mae Helen Williams fell asleep in death. She was preceded in death by her parents and her husband.

Mae Helen will be deeply missed by her children, Frank, Paul (Lisa), Naomi, Helen and Mark; grandchildren, Edda (Bernard) Collins-Coleman, Maria Williams, Paul A. Williams Jr., Cindy Williams, Ashley Williams and Mark Williams; great grandchild Peyton Coleman; and friends too numerous to mention.
