

Malik McMillian

September 9, 1996 - January 22, 2014

Malik McMillian was born on September 9, 1996, he was a blessing to his parents, Marshariki and Mack. He was a warm and loving child whose beautiful spirit enriched the lives of his family.

Malik enjoyed martial arts, sports and was himself very athletic. What he loved most was spending time with his family, whether he was volunteering at his grandmother's church or hanging with his cousins, family was his passion.

On January 22, 2014, Malik McMillian, closed his eyes and took his rest.

Malik leaves to cherish his memories, his parents, Marshariki, Oscar Winters and Mack Brooks; siblings, Malika, Tremaine and Naima; grandparents, Raymond Cooper Sr. and Rhonda McMillian; aunts and uncles, Kalonji, Kenya, Mchezo, Hekima and Dennis; best friend, Jose; special cousin, Javannie; blood brothers, Darrion Robinson, Tracy Robinson, Assanti McMillian and Armanti McMillian; and a host of other relatives and friends too numerous to mention.

“ Revelation 21:4 And he will wipe every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.

“ I recently read about the death of your loved one. As one of Jehovah's Witnesses, I am deeply concerned about the sorrow and distress that you must be experiencing. I would like to share with you some comforting news with you regarding your loss. The Bible promises us that we will have the opportunity to see our deceased loved ones again. At John 5:28&29 Jesus Christ assures us that everyone in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out. This wonderful promise of a resurrection is held out to all those who have fallen asleep in death. (Acts 24:15) Jehovah God has also promised obedient mankind at Revelation 21:3&4: that very soon all pain, sickness, and death will be no more. This is because according to 1 John 4:8 "God is love."
