

Mamie Thomas

March 27, 1945 - February 26, 2015

Mamie Thomas was born March 27, 1945 in Bryan, Texas to Alma Davis and Lorenzo Bacon. She was the first of seven children.

Mamie received her formal education in Texas and attending Bryan High School and Texas Southern University.

After moving to Chicago, Mamie met Alfred Eugene Thomas and the two were united in marriage. This union was blessed with one child Cosette, who was the love of their lives.

She began working at Spiegel and later at Illinois Bell. Mamie's love of people led her to volunteer at her church which turned into her vocation and fulfilled her lifelong passion for helping others. She worked faithfully serving as the Assistant Director of Roseland Christian Ministry Center for over 20 years. Her favorite job was running the Summer day-camp.

Mamie was known for her love of the Community. Bright and colorful personality, quick smile, hearty laugh, warm hugs and her willingness to stop everything and help others.

On February 26, 2015, Mamie Thomas heard her Lord and Savior say, "Well done my good and faithful servant", and closed her eyes and took her rest.

She was preceded in death by her parents and two siblings.

Mamie Thomas leaves to cherish her memories and continue her legacy, her daughter and best friend, Cosette; sisters, Constance (Anthony) Burks, Angela (Reginald) Gray and Joyce Marie Perkins; one brother, Gregory L. Clopton; and grand puppy's, Bandit, Honey and Lambi; and a host of relatives and friends too numerous to mention.
