

Mancel Marcus Whitmore

June 30, 1970 - April 18, 2016

Mancel Marcus Whitmore was born on June 30, 1970 to the union of Karen and Harold Whitmore in Chicago, Illinois.

In December 1980, Mancel accepted the hands of God at Abundant Life Baptist Church under the leadership of Richard Mitchell.

Mancel attended and graduated from South Shore Academy in 1988. He attended college and cooking school of which his first job was working for Mrs. Fields Cookies, as the manager for 2 years. He transitioned to Head Doorman at Eugenie Terrace where he worked for over 20 years. He also worked at Grand Ohio Condominium for over 16 years.

On July 9, 2010, Mancel and Cynthia united in holy matrimony. He was a loving husband and father. Known for his smile and concern for people, Mancel was honest, loyal and always willing to help anyone. Mancel filled our hearts and lives with happiness, joy and laughter, and we will continue to hold those feelings dear.

On April 18, 2016, Mancel Marcus Whitmore a life-long resident of Chicago, Illinois died unexpectedly at the age of 45. He is preceded in death by his father, Harold Roy Whitmore.

Manncel leaves to cherish his loving memories and continue his legacy, his mother, Karen Whitmore; his wife, Cynthia Whitmore; his daughters, Briahna Whitmore and two through marriage Olivia Cardenas and Surina Cardenas; and a host of uncles, aunts cousins and friends.
