

Marian Wilson

January 1, 1940 - April 29, 2019

Marian Wilson was born on January 1, 1940, in Chicago, Illinois as the second daughter to the union of Edward and Fannie Mae Wilson. She received her primary education from the local school in her Chicago neighborhood.

Marian raised four children as a single parent. She cooked, cleaned and cared for her family through her illness, showing them a fine example of a Strong Black Woman. Her children and her family meant everything to her.

Marian was a talented visual artist. She enjoyed music and was a consummate stepper. She loved playing softball during family outings where she was always the pitcher. One of her favorite pastimes was playing board games and penny poker. She was always the life of the party.

On April 29, 2019, after battling illness, she closed her eyes and rested from her labors. She was preceded in death by her parents Edward and Fannie Mae Wilson; two sisters Diane Bennett and Shirley Connor; and her daughter Rosa Lee Muhammad.

Marian will be dearly missed, by her devoted sons Miles Wilson and David Wilson-Bacon; her beloved daughter Valerie Muhammad; her loving sisters Wardah Abdullah and Mae Francis Wilson; her grandchildren Leroy, Anthony, Jurrod R., George, Michael, Aasiya, Miles J., Diavian, Ja'Liyah, and Deshawn; twenty-one great grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. She was well loved and will be greatly missed.
