

Mariesther Redd

October 31, 1942 - September 17, 2016

Mariesther was born in Chicago, Illinois on October 31, 1942 to the proud parents of Richard Redd Jr. and Isabella Redd. Isabella introduced all of her children to Christ at an early age and made sure that each one was baptized in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

Mariesther attended Hyde Park High School in the Hyde Park Area and also Dunbar High School. She was an honor student and remained in the honors program throughout school. She loved school especially Science and was always exploring with experiments in our home.

Many people called her Maria and her brothers nicknamed her Tua. Maria was a faithful member of Our Lady Guadalupe and taught religious education and the Catholic catechism on Saturdays. She also attended Holy Name Cathedral (downtown Chicago) during the summer months with friends.

Maria attended Arizona State University where she studied medicine and worked for the Red Cross as a Phlebotomist. Maria left Med school in her last year to nurse her dad who took ill and her mom to the age 94. Maria loved her family especially her parents and took care of them to the end of their life.

Preceding her in death were her father, Richard Redd Jr.; her mother, Isabella Redd; her two brothers, Joseph D. Redd and Spencer Redd; and her sister, Sonja Y. Redd.

Maria leaves to cherish her memories, her sister and best friend, Sharon Veronica Donnella-Love; brother-in-law, J. Alonzo Love; one brother, Robert C. Redd; sister-in-law, Carolyn Redd; nephews, Philip Redd and Spencer Redd Jr.; nieces, LaToya Redd, Kim Redd, Eloise Redd, Kierra Redd and Monica Redd Doukoure and her children, Darius Doukoure and Marcus Doukoure; sister-in-law, Carol Redd of New York; cousins, Antoinette Cenance, Elaine Harris; as well as other cousins, relatives and friends.
