

Mark Anthony Penn

November 22, 1967 - August 23, 2017

Mark Anthony Penn was born November 22, 1967 in Chicago, Illinois to Earl and Bernetta Penn. He was one of three children born to this union.

Mark attended Chicago Vocational High School (CVS), graduating class of 1985.

Mark was raised in a Christian home and was taught from infancy about Jehovah. He dedicated his life to Jehovah and symbolized his dedication through water baptism on December 15, 1985. He continued to serve Jehovah faithfully for over 30 years.

Mark was a man of many trades and talents coupled with a unique sense of humor. He loved working with his hands from turning a wrench to strumming a guitar. That's how vast his talents were. He was also a motorcycle and muscle car enthusiast. His dream was one day being able to sit in the cockpit of an airplane, but most of all, his desire was to fly an airplane. His favorite movie was "Top Gun" and every time he watched it you would think it was his first time seeing it.

Mark was the family comedian. His wife, Cheryl, was the only one that didn't think he was funny. His exact words were, "Cheryl don't think I'm funny". He loved Elvis Presley and he could do a mean Elvis impersonation. Actually, he could impersonate anyone.

The highlight of the spiritual service to Jehovah was being a delegate at the 2016 Special Convention of Jehovah's Witnesses that was held in Nairobi Kenya along with his family. He continued to talk about this special privilege up until his death.

On Wednesday night, August 23, 2017, Mark fell asleep in death. He was preceded in death by his parents, Earl and Bernetta Penn.

Mark leaves to cherish his memories, his loving wife, Cheryl Penn; his daughter, Miata Moore; his sister, Dianne Hopes; his brother, Desmond Penn; his brother-in-law, Maurice Hopes; his aunt, Juanita North (Ronald); his three nephews, Maurice Hopes II, Marticus Hopes (Alissha) and Desmond Penn Jr.; his one and only niece, Dominique Penn; and a host of other relatives, friends and his spiritual family.

“ To the Penn Family. This is Carol and David Martin. I hope you remember us. We remember all of you and your mom too; Sister Penn. One of our many memories of Mark was that he always would sit on the end of the row at the hall. We started to call him Penn-on-the-end. He will be missed but just for a short time until we see him again. Praise Jah.
