“ *Let it be God's throne room that I enter.
Let it be at His feet that I sit.
Let it be in His Glory that I Bask.
Let it be He whom I thank for all that has been done for me.
When I go home, let it be God's Throne Room in which I call Home!
Written by my daughter Andrea L. Jackson*

Auntie Mary when we get a chance to talk we always talk about the Lord and how good God is. I love you and I will miss you dearly and I know God doesn't make mistakes. Please Lord God bless my family and strengthen them. In the Name of Jesus I pray Amen!

I am Mary's cousin through marriage of Early Atterberry. His mother Jimmie and my great grandmother Maggie were sisters. As a child growing up we visited them all the time, we had Sunday dinners together at the house by the old White Sox Park in the 70's. I mom always talked about cousin Mary but we all lost contact. I heard good things about her.
