

Mary Louise Hall

November 4, 1924 - June 27, 2015

Mary Louise Hall. was the daughter of Bessie Ridgell and William Hall. She was raised in Birmingham, Alabama, where she attended public school.

In January 1944, Mary Louise graduated from A. H. Parker High School. She also attended Miles College in Fairfield, AL.

Mary Louise dedicated her life to Jehovah at an early age, and demonstrated that love throughout her life course. When Mary Louise learned of Jehovah's wonderful promises for man, her deep love for Jehovah and people motivated her to enter the full time service so that she could spend most of her time teaching and helping others. Her personal library of Bibles and other literature dated back to the mid-50's. She was a loyal member of the Cottage Grove Congregation.

On June 27, 2015, Mary Louise fell asleep in death. She was preceded in death by her parents: Bessie and William Hall; four brothers: Mr. Edward Gardner, Mr. David Hall Sr., Mr. Horace Hall Sr. and Mr. Joe Hall; two sisters: Mrs. Clara Gardner Hanson and Mrs. Victoria Hall Williams.

Mary Louise leaves to cherish her memories, nieces: Ms. Willie Mae (Sugarpie) Edwards, Miss Carolyn Hall, Ms. Glenda Woods and Mrs. Edwanita Gardner Rowser; nephew: Norman D. Hall Sr.; and a host of other cousins, friends, and family.
