“ Romans 6:23 For the wages sin pays is death, but the gift God gives is everlasting life by Christ Jesus our Lord.

“ To family and friends of Mary Ann Walker, I am so sorry of the death of your dear loved one. Death is an enemy that has brought much pain and emptiness to all our lives at some time. Never was death part of Almighty God's original purpose however, He has made provisions to do away with pain, suffering, and to put an end to death forever. This is written in the Bible at Revelation 21:4 it says: "These things will be a thing of the past." Also the resurrection of those asleep in the memorial tombs is a reality that will soon take place. At John 5:28&29 Jesus Christ said that he will call those asleep in death, and they will hear his voice and come out. Think of the joy of welcoming back Mary Ann and others who are deceased to a peaceful life on a peaceful earth. Yes, the Bible holds out these promises and many more to those faithful and obedient to God's Word the Bible. I hope this has brought a measure of comfort to you, and to have a greater out look for the future.
