

Mary Williams

October 30, 1934 - December 29, 2009

McCullough Funeral Home 851 East 75th Street Chicago, IL

Tribute Wall

“ Mary Williams

October 04, 2023 at 06:11 PM

“ Hello, My name is Sharon Martin. While reading the obituaries, I came across Ms. Williams'. She seems like a lovely lady who was genuinely loved. I can understand your pain as this is a sad time for me. I lost my father to man's greatest enemy, death, on October 1, 2006. So around this time I really miss him. McCullough did an excellent job with him. Ms. Williams caught my attention because I too love to collect key chains and, also, currency from other countries. I wanted to share with you something that lightens up my day. At John 5:28,29 Almighty God gave us a promise through his son, our lord and savior, Jesus. When I think about it, I can't wait to tell my dad how much I love him again. And, to remind myself that this is a real promise, I look at John 11:1-45 and think to myself: "If Almighty God can give Jesus this power while here on earth, it would be nothing for Almighty God to give that power to Jesus in heaven since Jesus will be ruling as king of his father's kingdom." That is a beautiful thought. As one of Jehovah's Witnesses, I have learned, believe and teach many things. However, this is one of the greatest things we can remind a true believers of. I hope that I have given you something that will help comfort you little during this sad time. With Sincere Sympathy, Sharon Martin 773-548-2662##imported-begin##Sharon Martin##imported-end##

September 15, 2009 at 12:58 PM