

Melvin Bass

July 18, 1967 - July 5, 2016

Melvin Bass was born July 18, 1967 in Chicago, Illinois at Michael Reese Hospital. He was the fourth of five children born to the union of Johnny and LaVerne Bass.

Melvin attended Martin Luther King High School and graduated in 1985. He received trainings and worked as a Sales Representative, Medical Assistant and Certified Nurse's Assistant.

Melvin was reared up in the Truth from birth. Later in life, he studied the Bible with Brother Joseph Davis and on February 2, 2013, Melvin symbolized his dedication through water baptism becoming a Jehovah's Witness. He served Jehovah with a smile on his face and was faithful until his death.

On July 5, 2016, Melvin fell asleep in death. He was preceded in death by his brother, Simeon Bass.

Melvin leaves to cherish his memories, his father, Johnny Bass; his mother, LaVerne Bass; an older brother, Samuel (Nelda) Clay; sisters, Nora Clay and Lucinda (Robert) Branch; one great aunt, Margaret Ferrell; oldest niece, Cresie Clay; nieces, Meshonda, Victoria, Rebecca, Kendra and Renia; nephews, Clovis, Rueben, Dariel, Phison and Demaron; cousins, spiritual brothers and sisters and a multitude of friends.
