

Melvin L. Oliver

October 7, 1956 - October 17, 2012

Melvin L. Oliver was born October 7, 1956 in Chicago, Illinois to Opra Lee and Elaine Oliver. He was the fourth of seven children.

Melvin symbolized his dedication to Jehovah by water baptism on June 2, 1973. He was passionate about his relationship with Jehovah, and made every effort to speak to anyone that would lend a listening ear.

On August 23, 1975, Melvin married his beautiful wife Marnetta in Chicago, IL. From this union they had three children, Tara, Jillian and Melvin II. He relocated his family in July 1991 to Conyers, Georgia.

Melvin was a people person, never met a stranger, had a gift to gab and was skilled in holding a one-way conversation. He was a history buff, able to speak on any topic at will. He was a computer whiz and could solve any problem. Melvin worked in the IT field with the Federal Reserve Bank in Chicago, IBM in Atlanta, GA, and then opened his own business, MelTech Computers in Conyers, GA.

Melvin had a hard exterior, but a heart so soft, with his family being 1st priority. He enjoyed fishing, recently raving about his first fishing expedition with his grandson after catching a 10 pound catfish. He enjoyed date night with his wife every Friday night with a standing dinner reservation.

Preceding Melvin in death is one brother, Walter Lee; and one grandson, Chandler Allen.

Melvin leaves to cherish his memories, his wife of 37 years, Marnetta; his three children, Tara, Jillian, and Melvin II; one son-in-law, Lamarr; one grandson, Kingston; his father and mother, Opra Lee and Elaine; five sisters and brothers, Gloria, Michael (wife, Vanoris), Richard (wife, Linda), Linda (husband, Claude) and Mable; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, brothers-in-law, sisters-in-law and close friends.
