

Michael McCadney

July 12, 1956 - June 25, 2012

Michael McCadney was born in Chicago, Illinois to Alberta and Jack McCadney on July 12, 1956. He lived in Chicago during his childhood and well into his late 20's.

Michael attended Burnside Public School and Longwood High School. He then went on to study film and photography at Columbia College. He continued his education at Devry University where he studied to become a Computer Technician.

In 1988, Michael moved to Sauk Village, IL. He spent several years working for Motorola, building and repairing cell phones. He later became a Slot Technician at the Horseshoe Casino where he spent over 10 years.

On June 25, 2012, Michael was called home to be with the Lord. He was preceded in death by parents, Alberta and Jack; and two sisters, Michelle McCadney and Robbye Dunns.

Michael leaves to cherish his memories, his nephew, Christopher McCadney; brothers-in-law, Mario Brown and Willie Dunns; friends, Joyce Taylor, and Joan and Jason Slater; and a host of other lifelong family and friends.
