

Michelle Denise Moore

June 3, 1968 - August 2, 2016

Michelle Denise Moore was born June 3, 1968, in Chicago, Illinois to John Stephens and Daisy Thurmond. She was the youngest of her ten siblings.

Michelle graduated from Jones Commercial High School in 1986 and furthered her education by receiving a Bachelors degree in Business Management from Chicago State University in 2010. In her professional career, Michelle served as an Executive Secretary for many years lending her expertise to several Fortune 500 companies.

In 1985, Michelle met the love of her life, Allan Fredrick Moore. They were joined in union before Jehovah on April 26, 1986. From this union, Jehovah blessed them with two children, Allan Fredrick Moore Jr. and Aaron Anthony Moore.

On September 15, 1979, Michelle made one of the most important decisions of her life by making a personal dedication to Jehovah and symbolized her dedication by water baptism. Michelle was a serious student of God's Word. She enjoyed discussing the many gems she found in her personal Bible study. Her genuine love for Jehovah motivated her to serve as a full time servant for a combination of over 27 years, many of those years while raising a family. She was known for her tremendous love for people. This love was evident in her ministry, within her family, and in her professional career. She especially enjoyed studying the Bible with interested persons, quite a number of which, she assisted to dedication and baptism.

Aside from being a zealous preacher, Michelle enjoyed the privilege of working along with the Regional Building and the Local Design Committees on various Kingdom Hall construction projects. For one month in 2015, Michelle had the special privilege of being invited and participating on the building work for the new World Headquarters of Jehovah's Witnesses in Warwick, New York. As Michelle often expressed, "serving on the Warwick project was a life changing experience!"

On August 2, 2016, Michelle Denise Moore fell asleep in death. She is preceded in death by her father John Stephens, grandmother Madora Archer, and brother Phillip Stephens.

Michelle leaves to cherish her memories her loving husband of 30 years Allan Sr.; her mother Daisy Phillips; her children Allan Jr. and Aaron (Danielle) and grandchild she was unable to meet Mia Michelle Moore; her siblings Nina, Maxine, Nathan, Barbara, John Jr., Judy, Marietta, Tracy, and Walter; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ Look forward to seeing you again. Enjoyed seeing you at the last assembly in Romeoville. Seeing you at the hotel la Quetta every day of the convention. Watching you and your husband wading in the water at the hotel packing up our cars for the last day of the convention. You had to change your shoes they were soaked. We stood in line every morning for our seats. Sat in front of you at the assembly. Your wonderful smile. I will miss you for a short time but will see you soon. Love your spiritual sister cookie.

“Michelle was as beautiful of a friend as the beauty of a rose. I will be so happy to hug her again, as will all of us. Please be thankful that we have the hope of seeing such a beautiful and vibrant person again. My prayers are with the Moore and Phillips family. For now, I say: A Dieu, ma soeur, pour le moment. (Goodbye, my sister, for the moment).

“Although I didn't know her personally, I share her grief and the families sorrow. The future resurrection will be a wonderful miracle. May Jehovah support this family.

“ My heart goes out to the entire Moore Family. Please remember the wonderful times that you shared with Michelle. She was a beautiful sister, inside and out who truly loved Jehovah. I look forward to seeing her again soon. Please find comfort in knowing what the Bible says about Jehovah’s yearning to bring Michelle back to life again: “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? All the days of my compulsory service I shall wait, Until my relief comes. You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning. (Job 14:14, 15).
