

Milton R. Wilkins

March 12, 1957 - December 28, 2017

Milton R. Wilkins, affectionately known as “Roy”, was born in Chicago, Illinois on March 12, 1957 to Daisy and Milton. Roy was the middle child of five children.

Roy received his education from the Chicago Public School system, graduating from Phillips High School.

Roy was employed at the Chicago Public Schools for 20 years until his health failed.

Roy had a gift of “cracking” jokes on others, which we thought was his missed calling as a comedian. Often Roy would laugh harder than any other person in the room when “cracking” his jokes. Roy also, thought he was the best spade player on the earth, but his family knew, Roy couldn’t make his required books in the game! This is what made Roy’s character so humorous to his family and friends.

Roy knew at an early age about Jehovah’s Bible teaching “He will swallow up death forever” (Isa 25:8)

On December 28, 2017, Roy fell asleep in death. He is preceded in death by his Mother: Daisy Carlisle, Sister: Carolyn, Niece: Anteria and special cousin: Anthony Caldwell.

Roy leaves to cherish his memory, Brother: Steven Wilkins; Sisters: Felicia Fields (Bobby) and Marcella Johnson (Terry); Special Nephew: David Wilkins; Two nephews: Kevin and Caleb; Two nieces: Nicole and Jasmine; and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

We will all miss Roy dearly.
