

Mrs. Myntha Key

September 15, 1938 - March 2, 2023

Myntha Key was born to Darnell Smith and Virgel Mae Cox in Searcy, Arkansas on September 15, 1939.

Myntha was a woman of many gifts. During her formative years in Arkansas she studied classical music and was awarded a scholarship for her diligence. She had a wide array of employment talents which included switchboard operator, a sales consultant at iconic Marshall Field's, and later in life she went on to practice real estate brokerage.

Myntha met Will early in life after her relocation to Chicago, IL. This unification yielded her beautiful a family. The children that came into her life include: Adolph Hubbard, Warren Savage (Sherita), Doris Sheridan, Lisa Young (deceased), and Will Savage (deceased). Her warm spirit and giving nature allowed her to be a mother figure to countless others.

Will provided Myntha with a warm introduction to Jehovah's Witnesses. Through the teachings and encouragement of the community, Myntha decided to dedicate her life to Jehovah in 1999. Myntha's passion for the teachings of Jehovah culminated with her dedication and water baptism on March 15, 2001. She continued to serve Jehovah faithfully until her death.

Myntha was an avid baker. She would bake delicious cakes and pies and share them with family and friends. She had a zest for life. She favored trying new foods and experiences. She was willing to share her wonderful recipes. She loved to watch Jeopardy with friends. She was known as a compassionate person, who could be counted on to be a listening ear, a helping hand in need, and most of all thoughtful.

Myntha's legacy will live on through beloved memories. She leaves to cherish her memories a host of nieces, grandchildren, great grandchildren, family and friends.

Previous Events

Service

MAR 18. 10:00 AM (CT)

Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses (71st W)
1315 East 71st Street
Chicago, IL

Tribute Wall

“ Mrs. Myntha Key

October 04, 2023 at 06:11 PM

“ 3 files added to the album Memories Album

McCullough Funeral & Cremation Services - March 15, 2023 at 04:27 PM