

Nona Lisa Davis

July 24, 1933 - October 18, 2012

Nona Lisa Davis was born July 24, 1933 in Chicago, Illinois to William and Nona Davis. She was one of five children.

Nona received her formal education in Chicago, Illinois, graduating from Englewood High School in 1951. After graduating Nona went to work for a law office and the Railroad retirement board but she found her niche at the United States Postal Service as a clerk. She loved her job and had many friends throughout the Post Office. Her hard work allowed her to retire from the Post Office in 1997 after years of faithful service.

The love of Nona's life was her family, especially her daughter Kathy, and her grandchildren. Nona enjoyed throwing birthday parties for the grandchildren and bar-be-ques, any excuse to get together and celebrate was welcomed. Nona and her brother Braxton enjoyed walking together daily in the mall until her health failed her and she was no longer able to walk.

Nona was a warm and loving person who enjoyed doing for others. She crocheted and would frequently make baby clothes and hats for friends and family.

On October 18, 2012, Nona Lisa Davis closed her eyes and took her much deserved rest. She was preceded in death by her parents, William and Nona; one sister, Beatrice Hurt; one brother, William Author Davis Jr.; and one grandson, Quinton Jr.

Nona leaves to cherish her memory, her daughter, Kathy; siblings, Zackial aka Ruth Sanders and Braxton Davis; grandchildren, Mariah, Jovan, LaQueanna and Christopher; great grandchildren, Jada, Johnathan, Quintain Jr., Elijah, Jamiah, James and Jovan Jr.; and a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews and many other family and friends too numerous to mention.
