

Norman Hudson

May 23, 1983 - November 25, 2018

Norman Hudson was born September 2, 1965 in Uniontown, Alabama to Henry and Mattie Hudson.

Norman dedicated his life to Jehovah in water baptism on May 23, 1983. He faithfully lived up to that dedication for over 35 years. He was a regular pioneer for many years while at the Pershing congregation. He served as a Elder at the Englewood Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses.

Norman loved sports, especially basketball. He couldn't jump, but he didn't need to, "Stormin Norman" was known for his soft touch around the basket. Norman worked at Spiegel's Warehouse for 9 years, eventually earning the title "Master Receiver", which included managing a staff of 15 people. He worked at Chase Bank for 11 years in the Check Sorter operations.

Norman was a big man with a warm heart. He loved to share with his friends, often arranging to barbecue for summer gatherings in his backyard.

Norman is awaiting the call Jesus promised at John 5:28, 29, where he will hear that it is time for him to wake up. He is preceded in death by his father Henry.

Norman leaves to cherish his memories, his mother, Mattie; siblings Jeraldine,

Modesta, Moses (Rolanda, his wife), Mary B. and Jolanda; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
