March 12, 1946 - February 27, 2014

Nylene Perry was born in Biloxi, Mississippi on March 12, 1946, to Eugene and Luella Perry. Nylene was the fourth of twelve children that blessed their union.

The Perry family moved to East Chicago Heights, Illinois where Nylene received her formal education. She attended Cottage Grove School and graduated from Bloom Township High School.

Nylene confessed a hope in Christ at an early age and became a member of First Union Missionary Baptist Church under the pasturage of Reverend Theodore McMillian.
