

Ora Lee Thompson

October 11, 1931 - September 9, 2017

Ora Lee Thompson, aka Big Momma and Sis Tom-Tom, was born on October 11, 1931, in Quincy, Florida to Laysaw and Refair Richardson. She was the oldest of two girls.

In 1950, Ora Lee graduated from Roosevelt High School in Lake Wales, FL. In 1956, she relocated to Chicago, Illinois where her life began.

In 1961, Ora Lee was born again and filled with the Holy Spirit. She became a member of Miracle Temple and years later, she joined and became a member of Monument of Faith. She worked in the women's ministry and became a member of the sanctuary choir.

On Saturday, September 9, 2017, Ora Lee made her transition. She was preceded in death by her parents; and one grandchild, Zishoni.

Ora Lee leaves to cherish her memories, one sister, Lillie Harris; one niece, Lisa Walker; one nephew, Frederick Good; three children, Teresa, Luther Hymes and Marie Thompson; eight grandchildren, Martinez, Qishon, Zimone, Trevora, Carlotta, Jineen, Agetha and Shantasia; sixteen great grandchildren; two great-great grandchildren; and a host of other relatives and many, many friends.

“ I will always remember this Dear sister for her beautiful voice and for her smile and for her words of encouragement to the saints at Miracle Temple and for the joyous times we spent in worship and praise together. Praise God our sister is now rejoicing with her saviour. Love to the family

OK

I, Otho King and Etta King are very heartbroken to hear about the passing of Ora Lee Thompson. We will be praying for the family. I am the son of the late Leody and Hazel King. She took care of me and my brothers and sisters since we were about three years old and younger. She was a wonderful person and very spiritual. She will be greatly missed. God Bless the family!!
Love Otho & Etta King
