

Ms. Pearlie Mae Jones

September 29, 1949 - October 17, 2021

Pearlie Mae Jones, was born on May 29, 1949, in Columbus, Georgia.

Pearlie grew up in Chicago, Illinois and attended Doolittle Elementary and later graduated from Frances Parker High School. She furthered her education by obtaining her Associates Degree in Nursing from the City Colleges of Chicago.

She met, fell in love, and got married, they were married for over 37 years. Into that union were born three children. Pearlie was a loving, devoted and nurturing mother, who was a master designer and crafter. She enjoyed sewing, crocheting, and designing plans for her husband to build. They would do this for many years. Rehabbing houses and beautifying the homes of others. She would later go on to work for the Chicago Transit Authority as a Motormen/Conductor where she would later retire from.

Pearlie came into a keen appreciation of the Bible and the promises Jehovah God extends to us by means of his son Jesus Christ. During her most recent stay in the hospital, she boldly preached to her nurses and doctors to put their faith as she has, in the Most High God, Jehovah according to Psalm 83:18. She was not afraid of death because she knew that soon, it would be swallowed up forever according to what the Bible teaches at 1 Corinthians 15:54-57.

On October 17, 2021, Pearlie fell asleep in death. She now awaits the promised resurrection hope at John 5:28, 29 and Revelation 21:3, 4. She was surrounded and supported by her loving family/caregivers during the last months of life. She was preceded in death by both parents, her husband, one daughter, two sisters, and one brother.
