

Pearline Allison Brookens

May 14, 1946 - March 4, 2018

Pearline “Pearl” Allison Brookens was born on May 14, 1946 in Cook County Hospital to Jace and Addie Allison. She was the fourth of five children raised in Harvey, Illinois.

Pearl symbolized her dedication to Jehovah God through water baptism to become one of Jehovah’s Witnesses on October 1, 1961 after learning the truth from her uncle and aunt, Willie and Frankie Boylan. Her love for Jehovah moved her to loyally serve with a complete heart despite many health challenges over the years. She taught the truth about Jehovah and his word, the Bible, to many, aiding some of them to dedication and baptism. She looked forward to the fulfillment of God’s promise of a paradise new earth where God “will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore.” (Revelation 21:4, 5)

Pearl was united in marriage to Lindsay Brookens on June 11, 1966. Together they raised one daughter, Leah, in the way of the truth. Pearl was very industrious, resourceful, caring and a devoted wife and mother.

Pearl truly enjoyed life and took pleasure in simple things. She enjoyed spending time with family and friends, cooking and eating good food, listening and dancing to good music and traveling to assemblies, conventions and on vacation. She loved her family and friends dearly, and if she could, she would do anything for you.

Pearl fell asleep in death on Sunday, March 4, 2018. She was preceded in death by her parents and her niece, Camille Thomas.

Pearl leaves to cherish her memory her faithful and devoted husband of over 51 years, Lindsay; her daughter, Leah; her siblings, Doris Allison, Ernestine Thomas, Learline Henry and Lorenzo Allison; and a host of beloved nieces, nephews, family and friends.
