

Peggy Edwards

August 7, 1960 - December 17, 2013

Peggy was one of five children born to Robert and Mossie Humphreys on August 7, 1960 in Chicago, Illinois.

Peggy went to school right here in Chicago, she graduated from Percy L. Julian High School and she also attended college.

Peggy met and married Michael L. Edwards and to this union were born five children, Michael Lawrence Jr., Crystal Victoria, Nathaniel Sebastian, Melissa Jennifer and Brian. She was a caring and loving mother and worked hard with her children.

Having an interest in the Bible and in searching for a better understanding of God's word, she stopped inside a Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses, liked what she heard and shortly thereafter she began a study of the Bible. Peggy had to deal with many roadblocks in her efforts to symbolize her dedication to Jehovah. She never gave up and thanks to her reliance on Jehovah she was able to symbolize her dedication through water baptism on February 2, 2013.

Peggy spent her last 5 years at Renaissance Park South Nursing Home. She spent much of her time encouraging and comforting others with the truths found in God's word the Bible. Peggy loved talking to others about her loving heavenly Father Jehovah. She loved attending all her meetings at the Kingdom Hall and being around all her Christian Brothers and Sisters. Peggy made many friends at Renaissance and she will be remembered for speaking her mind and showing concern for others.

On December 17, 2013 Peggy fell asleep in death. She was preceded in death by her parents, Robert and Mossie; her brother, Jimmy; and one son, Brian.

Peggy leaves to cherish her memories three sisters, Patricia, Lisa and Tasha; her four children, Michael Jr., Crystal, Nathaniel and Melissa; her grandchildren; nieces; nephews; close friends, Mr. and Mrs. Garalds, Michael and Linda Bowles, Daisy Gibson, Vanessa

Jackson; her Christian Brothers and Sisters; her friends at the Renaissance Park South Nursing Home; and a host of other relatives and friends.
