

Portia Yvette Guest

August 17, 1951 - November 5, 2018

Portia Yvette Guest was born August 17th, 1951 to her loving devoted parents John B. and Nellie Delores Stewart, in Great Lakes, Illinois. Portia was her parents only biological child however she had one adopted brother William (Billy) Stewart.

Portia attended Wacker Elementary School and then Fernwood Elementary before she attended Harlan High School and graduated from Jones Commercial High School in 1969. She furthered her education by attending Pivot Point Academy where she received her Masters of Cosmetology.

Portia had three beautiful children, two from her union with William “Bill” Guest, Marque “KiKi” and Karlin “Cobbie” Guest and several years later Patrick Malone.

Portia enjoyed things like, being a nail technician, shopping, cooking, Jazz music and most importantly spending time with her grandchildren. Portia was a great cook, she loved making her famous Squash, Sweet Potato Pies and Spaghetti. Portia’s passion was being a nail technician. She loved doing nails; and she enjoyed the happiness each client expressed after she finished their nails.

Portia was called home on Monday, November 5, 2018. Portia was preceded in death by her mother and father John and Nellie Stewart, grandmother and grandfather Frank and Pollie Gilmore.

Portia will be sorely missed by her three children, Marque “Kiki” Guest, Karlin “Cobbie” Guest and Patrick Malone (Chanel); three granddaughters, Maya, Chloe and ChaNiya; three grandsons, Javon, Jared and Little Patrick; and a host of cousins and friends.
