

Ray A. Taylor

January 8, 1958 - August 22, 2013

Ray Anthony Taylor was born on January 8, 1958 in Chicago, Illinois to Fannie Lee Taylor and Willie B. Jones. He was the youngest of six children.

Ray received his formal education in the Chicago Public School System.

Always willing to lend a helping hand when needed, Ray enjoyed helping his siblings. He moved to Texas and then to Germany to work for his brother, Albert, which fulfilled two of his passions, family and traveling. Upon returning to the United States, he took a job as a security guard, a job he truly enjoyed.

After meeting and having conversations with the Bible study conductor of a close family member, Ray himself searched for more knowledge and began studying the Bible with Jehovah's Witnesses. He then dedicated his life to Jehovah and on July 20, 2013, symbolized his dedication through water baptism at the "God's Word is Truth!" 2013 District Convention of Jehovah's Witnesses. As a newly baptized servant of Jehovah, Ray went forth preaching and teaching about God's kingdom.

On August 22, 2013, Ray Anthony Taylor fell asleep in death. His family looks forward to the fulfillment of living on paradise earth where sickness and death will no longer exist as foretold at Revelation 21:3 and 4. He was preceded in death by his parents and one brother, Robert J. Taylor.

Ray leaves to cherish his memories, his siblings, three sisters, Alma Wingard, Carolyn A. Taylor and Mary Elizabeth Taylor; one brother, Albert Taylor; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends too numerous to mention.
