

Readale Thomas

November 17, 1963 - October 25, 2015

Readale "Mookie" Thomas was born on November 17, 1963 to the union of Christine and Paul Thomas Sr. He was the third child of five children born to this union.

At an early age, Readale accepted Christ. He attended and graduated from Tilden High School in Chicago, Illinois.

Readale was a member of the World Worship Center in Park Forest, Illinois, where he was also part of their security team. He was very appreciative for the support and love received from Deacon and Mrs. Brand followed by family and friends.

Readale was a handyman and loved building things. He kept busy painting, putting up drywall and various other odd jobs. His last employer was Real Alloy in Chicago Heights, Illinois.

On October 25, 2015, Readale went to be with the Lord. He was preceded in death by his father, Paul Sr.; his mother, Christine; and his four brothers, Paul, Albert, Kim and Eric.

Readale leaves to cherish his memories, his loving wife, Shirley; four daughters, Rachel, Elizabeth, Chanel and Shantell; two sons, Shawn (Shon) and Readale Jr.; five grandchildren and two on the way; three sisters-in-law, Ethel (Keenan), Dorothy (Gregory) and Shavon; two brothers-in-law, David (Lisa) and Mark; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
