

Regina Horton

March 30, 1940 - March 16, 2014

Regina Horton was born in Chicago, Illinois on March 30, 1940 to Rita Williams and William Coleman.

She attended George Washington Carver Elementary and George Washington Carver High School in Altgeld Gardens.

While living in Altgeld Gardens, Regina met and married Eddie Horton. To this union, they were blessed with four children, Darryl, Edward, Rodney and Rheta.

She was extremely gifted in the area of arts and crafts; sewing, crocheting, painting and sculptures were among her many talents and skills.

After a study of the Bible, Regina dedicated her life to Jehovah God and symbolized her dedication through water baptism, becoming one of Jehovah's Witnesses. She was a faithful servant of Jehovah. Her love of the ministry and telling others about the good news of God's kingdom, led her to become a Regular Pioneer. Serving Jehovah was a top priority in her life and she made sure was present at the Kingdom Hall regularly.

On March 16, 2014, Regina Horton fell asleep in death. She was preceded in death by her husband: Eddie; two brothers: Ronald and Rubenstra; one sister:

Lynne'; one son: Darryl; and two grandsons: Jeremy and Rodney.

Regina leaves to cherish her loving memories, her sons: Edward and Rodney; her daughter: Rheta; her sisters: Eulalie, Beverly, Richanda and Tamara; her brothers: Reginald and Renardo; dear friends: Brian, LaShawn and Roxanne; 14 grandchildren; 27 great grandchildren; in-laws, cousins, nieces, nephews, and a host of family and friends.

“ Jehovah is a God of Comfort when we need it. How we know this is that the Bible's advice is to speak consolingly to the depressed souls. Friend, we look forward to seeing you in the resurrection. John 5:28, 29.
