

Mr. Reginald Bailey

January 30, 1963 - November 21, 2022

Reginald C. Bailey was born January 30, 1963 in Chicago, Illinois to Sarah Bailey of Riverside, Alabama. Reginald graduated from Martin Luther King Jr. College Prep High School in 1981. Reginald worked for many years at 20 E. Cedar as a doorman, where he was a union member and loved by many neighbors and workers alike.

Early in life, Reginald met and married his first wife, Melinda Jenkins, and to this union, three beautiful children were born: Janel Bailey, Sandra Hayes (Kevin,) and Reginald Bailey Jr. Reginald affectionately referred to an intimate relationship with "the Man Upstairs" and was a welcomed guest of many church communities from Dallas, to Chicago, to Madison. He could often be found exclaiming or sharing his motto, "JST CUZI!"

He leaves many dear friends and loved ones to cherish his memories, including the family listed above, and many dear siblings including his brother Kenneth Bailey, and four sisters: Jeanette Bailey, Jacqueline Dawson, Kimberly Branch, and Phyllis Bailey who preceded him in death; many niblings including Nakesha Dawson, Andre' Bailey (Ellice), Devin Nicholas (Ron), Mario Dawson Jr., Nikel Bailey (Balachew), Samantha Bailey, Malcolm Bailey, Robert Branch, and Zavier Branch; his former spouse, Sharon Cleveland, Sweetheart Lisa Franco, and a host of other relatives friends and loved ones.
