

Mr. Richard Campbell

July 30, 1931 - September 1, 2022

Richard Campbell was born on July 30, 1931, in Lexington, Mississippi to Geneva and Johnny Rogers. As a young adult he moved to Chicago, Illinois, where he remained until his death. Richard was one of 4 kids, which 2 brothers and 1 sister all have preceded him in death. He was married 3 times of which all wives preceded him in death, as well as 4 sons Robert, Kenneth, Ronald and Lil Richard who also preceded him in death.

Richard lived a long and exciting life. Before retiring he was a Bindery Operator and he loved drag racing. Once retired he enjoyed fishing, going to the boat, and most of all he loved singing and performing in local lounges. He loved singing the blues and B.B. King and James Brown were a couple of his favorite artists.

As strong and stubborn as he was, never giving up the fight, on September 1, 2022, God wrapped his arms around Richard and whispered, "come to me". So peaceful and free from pain he made his transition to his heavenly home.
