

Mr. Ricky Hill

February 2, 1956 - November 23, 2022

Ricky Ricardo Leonard Patrick Hill was born February 2, 1956, in Chicago, Illinois, to Rosie Lee Hill and Percy Lee Hill.

He attended Austin High School in Chicago, IL.

His hobbies were fishing, horseback riding, racing cars, and motorcycles. He loved to cook and could make a meal with little to nothing in the fridge or cabinets.

Ricky owned several businesses Rick's Place, Ricky's Entertainments Group and most recently, RT Construction, performing home rehabilitation.

Ricky was a fast learner and was very observant. (Cowboy) Jimmy Osborne and Bob McClurry taught Ricky what he soon made a career doing, home rehabilitation and carpentry work. He was a family oriented God fearing man. He was respectful and very thoughtful.

Ricky married LaJuana Greer having his only son Ricky Denzel Hill in 1991. He had a daughter Mavis.

Ricky passed away at St. Francis Hospital, in Evanston, Illinois on November 23, 2022, at 9:29 pm of heart failure. Preceding him in death was his mother Rosie Harris and brother Rudy Hill.

He leaves to cherish his memories, his father Percy Hill-Pinkdon; son Ricky D. Hill; daughter Mavis Patterson; sisters Delores E. Boykin and Nyauna Joiner; brothers Dwayne D. Hill, Sidney Hill-Pinkdon, and Kevin Jefferson; two grandchildren Kaniya and Jamare Hill; and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.
