

Robert Beard

July 2, 1956 - March 27, 2014

Robert Beard was born in Chicago, Illinois on July 2, 1956 to Jeanette and Zelmar Beard. He was the oldest of five children.

On April 28, 1990, Robert united in marriage with Arlene McClendon. To this union two children were born and their union lasted 23 years.

Robert studied the Bible with George Drew and Robert Martin Jr. where he began to learn the truth about Jehovah and his promises. He dedicated his life to Jehovah God and on May 15, 1997, he symbolized his dedication through water baptism, becoming one of Jehovah's Witnesses. He attended the Calumet City Congregation.

Robert was a great husband to Arlene and a great father to Remi and Raylan. He was always a jokester and had a fun-loving personality. He loved to play video games with Raylan. He will always be in their hearts and never forgotten. He was always ready and willing to help others in their time of need.

On March 27, 2014, Robert fell asleep in death. He truly believed in the Bible's hope of the resurrection. He always believed if he should die in this system that Jehovah would remember him and resurrect him. We now await the resurrection to greet him. He was preceded in death by his parents.

Robert leaves to cherish his memories and continue his legacy, his loving wife, Arlene; his children, Remi, Raylan, Tyrone and Derrick; his sister, Eileen Beard; three brothers, Henry Mallett, Terry and Sean-Todd Beard; three grandchildren, Jackie, Jamilah and Rulah-Nas; his mother-in-law, Rosie McClendon; two sisters-in-law, Tammy McClendon-Jones (Danny) and Elaine McClendon-Stewart; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ My condolences to the Beard family, I hope these words will give you some comfort. These words can be found in the Bible book of Psalms 37:10,11 and 29. They tell of a time when God will do away with all wicked ones forever and only those righteous will be left on earth surrounded by peaceful conditions. I hope you gain some measure of comfort from these words.

“ My deepest sympathy to the Beard family. Mercifully, by means of the resurrection, our loving God has opened up the priceless opportunity for us to see our loved ones again (John 5:28,29 & Acts 24:15). May you find comfort in His word the Bible. (Romans 15:5) My thoughts and prayers are with you in this time.
