

Robert Lee Davis

April 11, 1943 - December 25, 2014

Robert Lee Davis was born on April 11, 1943 in Philadelphia, Mississippi to the union of Irene and Jessie Davis. He was born the sixth of eight children.

Robert "Slue" received his education in the Philadelphia school system. He worked various jobs during his years of employment.

Slue met and married Celious Lewis. To this union two daughters were born, Vicki and Yolanda. His daughters affectionately called him Kool, because that's what he was.

Slue was an avid reader and kept abreast of current events. On any subject (old or new) he could readily pull out his documentation and defend his point of view. He loved taking long walks, gardening and listening to gospel music. He could fix anything, even if there were extra parts leftover after he was done.

On December 25, 2014, Robert Lee "Slue" Davis made his peaceful transition. He was preceded in death by his parents, Irene and Jessie Davis; and two brothers, Archie John and James.

Robert will be greatly missed and lovingly remembered by his daughters, Vicki (Michael) Pearson and Yolanda Davis; sisters, Bernice Anderson, Louise (Robert) Boler, Gladys (William Earl) Carter and Catherlean Nichols; brother, Jessie Jr. (Jean); aunt, Zether Graham; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ To the family of Robert Lee Davis. I'm very sorry for your loss. At this time when you are experiencing the pain of losing a loved one, may you find comfort in the words found in the Bible at 1 Peter 5:7. There we are encouraged to throw all our anxiety on God because he cares for you, and he cares about the pain you are experiencing right now.
