

Robert Maurice Fowler

December 5, 1921 - November 12, 2012

Robert Maurice Fowler was born December 5, 1921 in Chicago, Illinois to Daniel and Marjorie Fowler.

Robert received his formal education in Chicago. He worked many years for Ford Aircraft Division. When it was phased out, it became Ford Motor Company and in 1983, he retired from there.

In 1943, Robert married Annie Elizabeth Clark. To this union, three children were born, two daughter, Winifred "Winnie" and Marjorie "Midgie" and one son, Robert Maurice Jr. "Bobby".

Robert met Flora Mae Brown and they married in August 1956. The two were affectionately called "Gramps" and "Nana" and they raised their grandson, Aaron Keith. They took their grandchildren to the Bulls and the Bears games.

Gramps loved his grandchildren very much. He taught his family and many friends and neighbors how to fish and how to read a road map. He touched the lives of many.

After studying the Bible, Gramps came to appreciate and put faith in the many promises of Jehovah. He looked forward to the time of living on a paradise earth. He had the hope of the resurrection. During his last months he expressed his deep love and appreciation for his family.

On November 12, 2012, Robert fell asleep in death, with his family at his side. He was preceded in death by his beloved wife, Flora; his parents, Daniel and Marjorie; his sister, Elizabeth Albright; his son, Robert Jr.; and his son-in-law, Joseph B. Moore Sr.

Robert leaves to cherish his memories, two daughters, "Winnie" Winifred Moore and "Midgie" Marjorie Williams; three sisters-in-law and one brother-in-law, Helen Oliver, Josephine and Merrit Marks and Marguerite Brown; grandchildren, Pamela (Fred) Freeman, Joseph B. Moore Jr. (Melanie), Aaron Keith Fowler (Valerie), Valerie Powell and Tommy Brewer; and a host of great grandchildren, great-great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other relatives, friends and neighbors. Gramps will be truly missed.
