

Mr. Robert Kennedy

March 20, 1955 - August 17, 2022

Robert Kennedy, affectionately known as uncle Bubbs was born on March 20, 1955, in Chicago Illinois. He was raised by his adopted mother, Mildred Christian, who preceded him in death, who he dearly loved.

Robert attended Elementary School on the Westside of Chicago. After attending school he dedicated his time to babysitting his nieces and nephews, while his sister worked as a single mom. He enjoyed being in her life and they loved having him in their lives.

Robert enjoyed spending time reminiscing about the good ole days with his family, he especially enjoyed time with his brother-in laws, enjoying good music, food (his favorite was rib-tips) and a good cocktail. He was free spirited, always happy even when he had health challenges. We all knew a refreshing drink could make him feel better.

Bubbs, made it a practice to call and check on his sister Estelle and his special niece Deborah every morning. During his moments of health challenges he could count on his nieces, Deborah and Denise to attend to his needs.

Bubbs' kindness, patience, love, mild spirit and funny laugh will be truly missed by all. He was loved by so many. This is not goodbye, but see you later.

Robert, (Bubbs) leaves to cherish his memory, his sister Estelle Jones and brothers Sam Christian and Leonard Christian, who would preceded him in death; a host of nieces and nephews; grand nieces and nephews; extended family and friends.
