

Mr. Robert Layne

March 13, 1923 - October 4, 2021

Robert Layne was born on March 13, 1929 in Gregory, Arkansas.

Robert graduated from Carver High School in Augusta, Arkansas, and joined the Army shortly afterwards. He later moved to Chicago, Illinois where he worked as a Union Steward for Spiegel. While working for Spiegel, he started his career as a Barber-working on the weekends. He loved and worked as a Barber for 60 years. In November of 1974 Robert met and married the love of his life. Together they had a very special bond for nearly 50 years.

Bob, as many called him, made the most important decision of his life when he dedicated himself to Jehovah, and was baptized on January 20, 1973, as one of Jehovah Witnesses. He had a passion for the ministry, he never left home without that black bag with all his preaching tools inside-ready to give a witness about Jehovah, with his lovely wife right there supporting him, whom he loved dearly. As a result he aided many individuals to learn the truth about Jehovah. Robert served as an Elder in the Avalon Park Congregation for many years. He loved the friends, and was willing to give of himself, his time, and energy in helping anyone that he could. He served Jehovah faithfully until his death on Monday, October 4, 2021.

Robert was preceded in death by his father, Green, his mother, his sons.
