He loved people and wherever he went he was a conversationalist to all he met.

Robert attended and graduated from Alcorn State University majoring in Physical Education. After college, he was drafted into the armed forces where he decided to make a career of it, and retired in 1993. As a result, he was affectionately known as Sarge and Uncle Sarge to his many nieces and nephews.

Robert began a study of the Bible with Jehovah’s Witnesses, dedicated his life and symbolized his dedication through water baptism becoming one of Jehovah’s Witnesses in 2000.

Robert was an avid music lover, and he took pride in his music collection. He was a hard worker and made his career at Provident Hospital, where he retired from after 25 years of dedicated service, and retired in 2013.
