

Rochelle Fletcher

September 4, 1940 - June 14, 2012

Rochelle Fletcher was born in Hazlehurst, Mississippi on September 4, 1940.

She married Aaron Fletcher, they were united in matrimony December 24, 1960, from this union five children were born. She was passionate about being a mother, not only to her own, to countless others. Her children and her grandchildren will always remember and cherish the fond moments they had with her. Rochelle had a humorous and lighthearted nature. She also enjoyed her movies and her music.

Rochelle symbolized her dedication to Jehovah God by being baptized in the summer of 1973. For over 40 years, she expanded herself in the preaching work, which she loved, talking to others about Jehovah God and his kingdom. Her passion and dedication for her ministry regardless of her health, kept her strong, and Jehovah God was her rock and her fortress.

On June 14, 2012, in preparation of planning another day of service to Jehovah God, Rochelle Fletcher fell asleep in death. She was preceded in death by her husband, Aaron Fletcher on March 3, 2005.

Rochelle leaves to cherish her memory, her three sons Aaron, Robert, and Eric along with her two daughters Dana and April, one daughter-in-law LaShun Fletcher, one son-in-law Johnny Owney, two nephews, Edgar and Genard Davis, 15 grandchildren, 35 great grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.
