

Roella Henderson-Davis

January 28, 1950 - June 26, 2020

Roella was soft-spoken, humble, quick-witted, funny and kind. She loved her family and delighted in the role of grandmother and great-grand mother.

Roella excelled academically, and in fact, at that time, she held the highest IQ in her high school, Loretto Academy. She was a math whiz! Always, she was humble and gladly shared her knowledge; she assisted and taught anyone who asked.

More so, Roella was a faithful and loyal friend. She accepted and loved each one of her friends as an individual and embraced each woman “as is”. How do you label a friendship that spanned for some 20+ years, others 50+ years and still even more 60+ plus years?

Roella was phenomenal; a friend without conditions. Her Posse, her life-long friends, though not by blood, their hearts were connected and their lives intertwined; They were sisters. They were family.

Roella was private. She held her pain and suffering within and with God. She believed. She shared her joy and was easy for laughter and mirth. She abhorred conflict and avoided it when possible. However, when she spoke, you listened. She was seemingly always ready with a humorous but razor-sharp retort. Her smirky smile and quiet chuckle will remain with us always.

Roella is and will continue to be missed. We celebrate her life and give thanks for the Divine gift of her in our lives.
